

ENTERPRISE-OZARK COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Your Investment in Excellence

Adjunct (part-time) Aviation Instructor (Albertville, Andalusia, Mobile, Ozark)

QUALIFICATIONS:

Required:

AVIONICS INSTRUCTOR: Bachelor's degree* and three (3) years' full-time work experience in the field. Must hold FCC General Radiotelephone certificate. (*degree may be waived in certain circumstances)

AVIATION MAINTENANCE INSTRUCTOR: Associate degree*, FAA Airframe and Power plant Mechanic certification, and three (3) years' full-time work experience in the field. (*degree may be waived in certain circumstances)

POSITION SUMMARY:

Under the supervision of the Division Director; Director, Evening and Extended Programs, and/or Dean of Instruction, employee instructs students according to established policies and procedures.

SALARY:

$23.54 per hour

POSITION AVAILABLE:

As needed

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

Applicants must submit a complete application packet which consists of:

- A completed Enterprise-Ozark Community College application for employment
- Cover letter stating campus or site preference and availability for day or evening courses
- Current resume
- Official or unofficial copies of college transcripts verifying required education
- Copy of FAA or FCC certification

From the applications received, a pool of eligible adjunct instructors will be developed. Positions will be filled on an as-needed basis. Interviews will be by appointment only. Applicants must travel at their own expense. Employment is contingent upon an acceptable criminal background check. The background check requires a non-refundable fee of $45.00.

Enterprise-Ozark Community College application form is available at www.eocc.edu and application should be sent to:

Human Resources Coordinator
Enterprise-Ozark Community College
P O Box 1300
Enterprise, AL 36331

334-347-2623 ext. 2222

Enterprise-Ozark Community College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act.